

MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

Guide

Joining the Association means playing an active part in the success of our students. It contributes to strengthening the spirit of belonging to a dynamic international school!

The Association

The Lycée français international Simone Veil is a private school under agreement with the AEFE. As such, it is managed by a parents association.

The association of parents and supporters of the French school in Düsseldorf (« Verein der Eltern und Förderer des französischen Gymnasiums in Düsseldorf e.V », hereinafter referred to as "the Association") was founded in 1976. It is the managing body of the school and is legally responsible under German law.

The Association is managed by a Management Committee (« Vorstand »), which is the association's executive body and comprises 6 to 10 members - volunteer parents elected from among the association's members.

The members of the Association meet at least once a year at an Ordinary General Meeting to elect their representatives to sit on the Management Committee, to present the annual accounts and to vote on the budget and school fees for the following year.

School revenue mainly comes from tuition fees paid by families.

The Association covers the salaries of local staff, contributes to the salaries of staff who are resident or seconded by the AEFE, and bears all operating costs (utilities, maintenance of premises and educational expenses).

The French government also contributes: partial remuneration of resident and seconded staff (civil servants recruited by the AEFE), scholarships for certain students, and one-off grants for equipment and operating costs.

The Management Committee manages the school administratively, financially and legally in close partnership with the school management. It defines the budget, sets tuition fees, manages the school's real estate and personal property, and recruits local staff in conjunction with the Headmaster.

The Management Committee regularly meets to discuss and take management decisions, with an advisory board made up of the school's Headmaster, the primary school Headmaster, the Administrative and Financial Director and, by invitation, the French Consul General and a representative of the French Embassy in Germany.

Any parent can become an active member of the Association (See Eduka/Parent Information during registration period or application form) and apply to the Management Committee to take part in the administrative management of the school.

The financial statements approved at General Meetings are available to members of the Association and may be consulted by the school's financial officer.
