CAMP GOALS

Discover new activities

Develop creativity

Make new friends

Build self-confidence

Enjoy an active and enriching week

Complementary talents to inspire young creators

Maud Deflandre, artist and art teacher, Silja Went, an artist trained at Düsseldorf's Academy of Fine Arts and specialising in communication design and Cristina Escobar de Ríos, artist, art historian and educator, bring complementary creative perspectives to this camp.

They share one passion: sparking children's curiosity and helping them discover the joy of creating.

Little autumn artists – Imagine, explore, create!

A week for children aged 3 to 7 to create, play and explore the colours of autumn! Painting, collage, printmaking and modelling spark their imagination and bring playful creations to life. Activities are tailored to each child's age and pace: younger children explore materials through their senses and hands-on play, while older children develop their ideas and try new techniques.

Creative workshops alternate with games, quiet time and outdoor activities, so everyone can enjoy the holidays at their own pace and leave feeling proud of what they have made!

The programme and supervision may be adjusted depending on the number of participants and the age of the children.

The camp is subject to a minimum number of bookings.

CAMP GOALS

Stay active and enjoy movement in a dynamic environment

Develop teamwork and cooperation

Build self-confidence

Learn to play fairly and respect rules

Experience an active, fun and balanced week

An enthusiastic team to inspire a love of sport

Gabor Papp, Marin Lilić and Philippe Lay bring their energy and experience to a week of active, happy holidays! Already familiar to pupils through the school's fencing and football activities, Gabor and Marin are joined by Philippe, an experienced activity leader who has worked at holiday camps and residential camps in France.

Their shared ambition is to help every child enjoy being active, discover new sports and take on age-appropriate challenges. With enthusiasm and a supportive approach, they encourage teamwork, fair play and confidence, helping each child feel included and leave with wonderful memories!

A week to get active, have fun and take on challenges

An action-packed week to discover and enjoy a wide range of sports! Children are organised into age groups, each with a dedicated programme of activities and challenges suited to their pace and abilities.

Ball sports, group games, obstacle courses and relay races: every group explores plenty of ways to get moving, improve their skills and have fun together. A great opportunity to build confidence and team spirit while sharing the joy of sport!

The programme and supervision may be adjusted depending on the number of participants and the age of the children.

The camp is subject to a minimum number of bookings.

CAMP GOALS

Spark scientific curiosity

Develop inventiveness and creativity

Learn through experimentation

Strengthen logical thinking and problem-solving skills

Make new friends

Mr Fabien Leroy

Fabien Leroy is a trained engineer with a passion for making science accessible and engaging. His goal is to show children that science is a wonderful playground for ideas. Through practical challenges, experiments and hands-on projects – such as a robotic arm, self-propelled model cars, a pinball machine or an experimental fountain – he turns each day into a scientific adventure where children learn by building, testing and having fun.

A week to experiment, build and understand

What if the holidays became a laboratory of ideas? Surprising experiments, construction projects and scientific challenges invite children to observe, test and invent. They explore, work together to find solutions and discover the pleasure of understanding how things work through hands-on activities. Games and outdoor activities round off a week designed to inspire curious minds and have fun!

The programme and supervision may be adjusted depending on the number of participants and the age of the children.

The camp is subject to a minimum number of bookings.

CAMP DE VACANCES

Japan Adventure

Ages 6 – 14

CAMP GOALS

Discover Japanese culture and spark curiosity

Develop creativity through varied activities

Practise patience, concentration and fine motor skills

Cooperate, share ideas and create together

Enjoy a playful, creative week full of discoveries

Mr Jocelyn GANNERON

Jocelyn Ganneron spent twenty years working as a photographer in the fashion and advertising industries in Paris. For several years, he has shared his creative world with children at the school through stencil-painting workshops during holiday care.

Already well known to the children, he encourages them to experiment, use their imagination and enjoy creating. In this camp, he guides them on a discovery of Japan filled with colours, shapes and fresh inspiration, giving everyone the chance to express their ideas and feel proud of their creations!

Create, play, discover!

Destination Japan – Create, play, discover! From paper folds to the colours of the “Great Wave”, children explore Japan through a week of artistic, cultural and culinary discoveries!

Creating kokeshi dolls, folding origami, decorating fans and trying calligraphy: each day brings new techniques to explore. Children also take inspiration from Hokusai to paint their own “Great Wave” and from Yayoi Kusama to create a colourful collaborative artwork filled with dots. Sea-themed games and making onigiri, Japanese rice balls, complete the adventure.

A week to spark curiosity, let imagination flourish and share the pleasure of discovering another culture!

The programme and supervision may be adjusted depending on the number of participants and the age of the children.

The camp is subject to a minimum number of bookings.

CAMP DE VACANCES

Handball Challenge

Ages 6 – 12

CAMP GOALS

Discover handball or improve passing, dribbling and shooting

Develop coordination and agility through games and challenges

Strengthen team spirit and learn to cooperate on the court

Build confidence while respecting the rules and others

Enjoy a sporty, playful week and make new connections

With qualified coaching from Düsseldorf's Fortuna 95 club, children benefit from an approach that combines sporting expertise with the joy of playing. Recognising effort, celebrating progress and making sure everyone feels included: a supportive way to inspire a love of handball and bring team spirit to life!

Passes, challenges and plenty of fun!

Catch, pass, dribble ... and aim for the goal! During the second week of the holidays, children aged 6 to 12 discover handball or develop their existing skills through activities tailored to their age and ability.

Passing games, coordination courses, shooting challenges and a chance to try goalkeeping alternate with small-sided matches to make learning fun. Children sharpen their reactions, try new moves and learn to build the game together with their teammates.

The programme and supervision may be adjusted depending on the number of participants and the age of the children.

The camp is subject to a minimum number of bookings.
